2023-174. Discussion of whether to begin the process of rezoning 30 properties on Lovett Avenue, Wealthy Street, and Barnard Street from R-3 Single-Family Residential to MFR Multi-Family Residential.

City Manager Charles gave some clarification regarding this item based on what was being stated on Facebook.

Zoning Administrator Gianotti highlighted the request for guidance.

Commissioner Schulz asked what the current zoning was for the properties. Zoning Administrator Gianotti responded that it was R3.

Commissioner Schwartz asked about the current timeline and if affected residents would be notified. Zoning Administrator Gianotti responded that it would go to the Planning Commission on October 10th and yes, residents would be notified.

Commissioner Wessely asked about height restrictions and if they had to be rentals or could be owner occupied. Zoning Administrator Gianotti responded that the height restriction was 35 feet or 2.5 stories tall, and they could be rentals or owner occupied.

Commissioner Schwartz asked about parking restrictions. Zoning Administrator Gianotti responded that parking on site was required.

Deputy City Manager LaFave noted that storm water is regulated throughout the City. An analysis is done to make sure the system can handle it.

Paul McCarthy, 554 Lovett Ave., encourages the Master Plan and suggested to proceed with rezoning of the properties.

Linda Najjar, 530 Lovett Ave., has owned her home since 1996 and wonders why the need to go from R3 to MFR? She is against the rezoning and stated that there is no need for multi-family housing.

Dan Talbet, 604 Greenwood Ave, stated that Mr. Gianotti was a pleasure to work with and he supports the Master Plan.

Bob Kirchgessner, 1900 Eldorado, is in full support of rezoning and feels a shift in attitudes for rezoning.

Gerald Najjar, 530 Lovett Ave, stated that we should be harder on landlords for maintenance and upkeep of properties and clean up the neighborhood.

2023-0174-A. Arendshorst-Hamrick. To direct staff to begin the process of investigating rezoning 30 properties on Lovett Avenue, Wealthy Street, and Barnard Street from R-3 Single-Family Residential to MFR Multi-Family Residential.

Commissioner Arendshorst mentioned that this was one of the most robust discussions during the Master Planning sessions and the time is right to discuss it. He also noted not to get information from Facebook. He would love to have discussions and receiving feedback is welcome.

Commissioner Hamrick noted that social media was not an official channel, and it is not closely monitored. She also clarified that R3 zone is a single family residential and MFR is for multi-family and the rezoning makes sense.

Commissioner Schwartz is in favor of learning more.

Commissioner Schulz stated that it was a good time to learn more.

City Manager Charles stated for residents to reach out to Doug or Jay with questions and there were packets of FAQ's on the sign-in table.
